REMARKS: Jay, After talking with you about no need for cancelling the project, I called Jim [REDACTED]. He thinks it's not impracticable to use the GM format and agrees to see what can be done. The GM will be a better vehicle to get this info to levels where the problem of overseas Chinese is a factor in deliberation. Perhaps with more encouragement, the GM issuances could continue to make a sizeable contribution as they have in the past. There will be little contribution with few issuances. There has been a considerable amount of favorable comment about the worth of the GM's in general and specific ones as well, e.g., Tibet-Offshore Islands, Mt. Scopus, Sinai. In view of the values to be derived from pushing a product which has gained entree thru quality, I would urge a bit of en- FROM: couraging salesmanship on your part. /s/ JAB
